BE MY GUEST

13 June – 12 July 2014

Opening: 12 juin 2014, 18h – 21h

Galerie E.G.P is delighted to present Be My Guest, a group exhibition gathering ten emerging artists and a collective.

From June 13th to July 12th, 2014, artists represented by the gallery will become curators for and invite artists of their choice.

The exhibition will be the opportunity to discover L.I.E.S

(London International Exploration Society) invited by Oliver Bragg; in view of the exhibition they undertook archaeological researches throughout London in order to find Jacob Epstein's sculptures missing penises.

Rachel Rom invites visitors to lose themselves into Pauline Klein's universe while Andy Flett suggests we discover June Jung's portraits that reveal a fantasized sub-culture. Nicholas Portalupi shares a multidisciplinary approach with Arianne Foks who is without surprise his guest for a latest text-based work.

Tobias Tovera's vibrant works capture the body and soul energies, reminiscing Igor Josifov's Purification series while Ali Kaaf, who formerly worked with Rebecca Horn burns paper and uses glass with the same performative approach as Josifov.

DJ Manuel-M will be in charge of the artistic sound thanks to his host Adrien Imparato.
