

علامة تنقيح

Oct 11
Nov 11

Mark for Redaction

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mark For Redaction

Envisioned by Razan Al Salah

Curated by Hilal Khalil,

October 11 – November 11, 2018

Free

Flux Factory

39-31 29th Street

Long Island City, NY 11101

Contact: info@markforredaction.com

Web: www.fluxfactory.org

Facebook Event

@flux\_factory

Mark for Redaction is a group exhibition from October 11 until November 11, envisioned by former flux resident Razan Al-Salah and curated by Hilal Khalil, this exhibition showcases multi-disciplinary forms of contemporary art from self-identified Kweer (queer), lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, and/or gender non-conforming people who have ties to what is colloquially known al-'ālam al-'arabī (South West Asia and North Africa (SWANA)) and the respective diaspora.

Mark for Redaction seeks to build community and provide a safe(r) space for artists to discuss and unpack the many layers of identity by displaying personal works of art that challenges notions of visibility, "Kweerness", and "coming out" in relation to the colonialist concepts of the "Orient" and the "Occident". Set in a reimagined apartment that mirrors the private apartments and studios of "Kweer" artists, Mark for Redaction presents installations, performances, workshops, screenings, and discussions.

October 11 - November 11

Opening Reception, Oct 12, 6pm

Open Hours: Thursday - Sunday, 1 pm - 6pm or by appointment

---

FULL CALENDAR

~

Flux Thursday / Writing and Storytelling workshop hosted by Tarab NYC

October 11, 7pm

(National Coming Out Day)

~

Opening Reception and Party!

October 12

Opening reception 6-7pm

Dance Party 8pm

~

Performance by Nour Ballout

October 13, 8pm

Noura Ballout is a Detroit based Artist, Curator, and Entrepreneur. Their work is an exploration of self and a critic of societal perceptions of their intersectional identities.

~

Salon Al-Mahjar

November 11, 1 to 5pm

Gallery is open at 12:00pm for viewings.

Ghada' (Lunch غداء) will be served at 1:00pm

Open Mic / Performances at 2:00pm